ENRICHING THE EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE AND STUDENT OUTCOME FOR FUTURE CHEYENNE ALUMNI

Homecoming 2009

Haunted Halloween at Cheyenne High School!

Excitement filled the air on the campus of Cheyenne High School during Homecoming week 2009. Spirit signs lined the hallways as students awaited Friday night's football game versus rival Legacy.

A new tradition has made Homecoming exciting not only for current students but for alumni as well. The Cheyenne Alumni Association participated in the festivities and raised money for the alumni general fund.

Next year's Homecoming activities will give alumni the opportunity to join in the excitement again.

Class of 2000 reunion planning is currently underway and is tentatively scheduled for Homecoming weekend 2010!

Jonathon Prince chooses HOPE!

RUN. INSPIRE. CHANGE.

On October 15, Cheyenne graduate Jonathon Prince began his third run across America to inspire HOPE, promote active healthy lifestyles and donate proceeds raised to six non-profit organizations.

The Hope or Die campaign aims to inspire those in need and encourages others to use their natural abilities to give back to the community and influence positive change in the world.

As a social 'Athlivist' (athlete-activist), JP intends to use his running ability to

Project Giving 2009

In our continuous efforts to give back to the community, the Cheyenne Alumni have created Project Giving. In recent months, the need for basic support of our military has come to our attention. We decided to dedicate Project Giving 2009 to our friends and family stationed overseas this holiday season. Care packages included soap, toothbrushes, toothpaste and tons of snacks. Special thanks to everyone who provided feedback on our Facebook page.
